Saddle up your horses...for a week of horsemanship, riding and more summer fun! Daily ground, Western and English riding lessons are supervised and taught according to CHA certification standards. Trail riding is a fun extra! Add friends & counselors, daily devotional times & worship and this may be the best week of your summer! Horse camps end by giving your family and friends a taste of the week in a horse show on the last day of camp. Wildwood Ranch is a non-denominational youth camp owned & operated by the Detroit Rescue Mission Ministries.

All residential camps will also include opportunities for activities such as swimming, daily devotional quiet time, arts & crafts, nature studies, archery, canoeing, team-building, chapel, climbing wall, ropes course and group games.

Our horse camps fill up quickly, so register early!

Wrangler-In-Training June 21 – 25 (overnight) Ages 13-17 $350 per person
This is a program for riders that already know how to walk, trot and canter and desire to be involved as a “Junior Wrangler” position at camp. Campers will improve their personal riding skills along with intensive instruction in horse management, guiding trail rides and assisting in riding lessons along with leadership skills, Bible lessons, chapels and personal quiet times.

You must get accepted into this program by completing a questionnaire and perhaps an interview. Please contact the camp office for more information before applying.

W.I.T. Requirements:

- Serve at least one week of a summer internship as a Junior Wrangler after the week of W.I.T.
- Previous horse experience • Cowboy or paddock boots

Saddle - Straddle #1: July 9 - 14 (overnight) Ages 10-12 $350 per person

Saddle - Straddle #2: July 30 - August 4 (overnight)
English riding program that teaches horse care along with riding skills. Campers spend two activity periods each day learning horsemanship skills, on and off the horse. Highlights of the week are a trail ride cookout, introduction to bareback riding and gymkhana games. The week concludes with a riding pattern performance open to parents and guests.

Canter & Post July 16 - 21 (overnight) Ages 13-15 $350 per person

Campers spend two activity periods a day learning about horsemanship and riding. This English style riding program promotes horse care, personal riding skills and equestrian knowledge. Highlights of the week include a trail ride cookout, bareback riding and gymkhana games. The week will conclude with a riding pattern demonstration for all parents.

Horsin' Around Day Camp #1: June 26-30 (day only) Ages 9 - 13 $250 per person

Horsin' Around Day Camp #2: August 14-18 (day only)

Horsin' Around Day Camp #3: August 21-25 (day only)

Do you love horses? Then come on out and spend a week with ours! Your child will learn beginning horsemanship, learn the basics of tack, grooming, and western style riding. Each day, campers will spend time working with our wrangler staff and interacting with our horses. An area vet will also join us to speak to the campers about horse care and health. By the end of the week, we apologize if your child wants to take home a horse! When not at the barn, campers will enjoy Wildwood's quality program activities like the lakefront, nature program, and climbing wall. Don't let this opportunity pass you by!

Wildwood is state licensed and accredited by the American Camp Association...because our goal is to give you the best possible summer camp experience!
